

Layout / fitter

Job summary:

Layout / Fitter is responsible for measuring, aligning, cutting, and fitting material, and for cleaning welds – grinding fabricated structural and plate materials. Must be able to work under frequent supervision. Must have experience reading shop fabrication drawings.

Responsibilities:

- Read and interpret structural steel blueprints and plans for layout, fitting, and assembly
- Layout, position, align, and fit components together according to fabrication and detail drawings, and within specified tolerances
- Perform precise measurements using weld gauges, tape measures, and other measuring tools
- Measure and mark location and identification of holes, copes, hardware, and welds
- Cut products using torches and other tools
- Follow detailed weld procedures
- Have knowledge of how to safely use general shop power and hand tools
- Able and willing to be trained in different production areas
- Attention to detail and organized